Directors to Convene

State Association Will Hold Meeting First of February at Harrisburg

Secretary J. M. Hill of the school board is in receipt of a letter announcing the seventh annual convention of the State Directors' Association to be held in Harrisburg on February 1 and 2. It has been the custom of the local school board to send delegates and it is probable that one will be appointed at the next meeting.

MONESSEN HAS NO TERRORS FOR HER

Woman Proves She is Fully Qualified to Live in Town Across the River

EJECTS MAN FROM HOME

To live in Monessen is an undisputed indications of rare bravery. If the residents were not brave they wouldn't be residents—and nobody would blame them. To be really brave, not bold or audacious—although Monessen has some of that class too—doesen't usually require any self affirmation but sometimes it is necessary to impress people with the fact. Then people move to Monessen.

Without leading up to the events that makes people know it is necessary to be brave to live in Monessen, or without citing proof of the statement which is commonly known to be a fact, this narrative will tend to produce the indication of bravery. Brave men are not in the majority in Monessen; rather one should say the brave women are in the majority.

The other day Mrs. Supowit whose husband runs some kind of a store in Monessen was engaged doing yoeman work behind the counters when a neat appearing and well dressed American with locomotion in any certain direction seriously hampered by too much clog feet, managed to catch the stairs of the Supowit house as they came around. Mrs. Supowit wasn't thinging about being brave or anything like that but was working away like a beaver cleaning things up in the store, in the absence of her husband. But after the American had successfully scaled the stairs and landed on deck on the second floor, hearing queer noises Mrs. Supowit demonstrated that she lived in Monessen.

SEVEREST BLIZZARD COMES UNHERALDED

Coldest Weather of Winter Follows in Wake of Snow Storm--Temperature Drops to About Zero

People living along the Monongahela valley got their first speaking acquaintance with really cold weather this winter last night and this morning. Without any previous press announcements the cold wave came, pushed by a cutting and bitterly cold north wind. Early last evening snow began to fall. Wind whistled an airy refrain around the corners and the mercury in thermometers went down with a bump.

When people woke up this morning it was with a sense that this was the coldest of the winter season. Thermometers showed the temperature at various places of the town ranging from two above zero to nearly 10 above, but some people who were forced to make their way down street against the face of the cold north wind were ready to swear that it was at least 10 degrees below.

The cold spell which originated in Assiniboia and Dodge City, Kan., will not break after a day but will continue for two or three days with the temperature not rising much above that is now is.

TALENTED SINGER WILL LEAVE HERE

Helen Atwill Called Home by the Severe Illness of Near Relative

Patrons of the Palace Theatre will learn with regret that Miss Helen Atwill, the talented mezzo-soprono who has been filling an engagement at this popular house during the past four months, will terminate her contract with the Saturday night performance. Miss Atwill is called to her home in Toledo, Ohio, by reason of family sickness. During her engagement here she has made a decided impression on the music loving public, and her performances have been a leading attraction at the Palace. She possesses a mezzo-soprano voice of rare quality, which has the charm of bringing out expression as well as tone, and the clearness of her enunciation was particularly appreciated by her audiences. While she rendered classical selections with equal facility, her most poplar work was the sweet and simple ballads and songs that appealed to the masses. Her Charleroi engagement will be remembered with pleasure by the thousands who have listened to her voice during the past four months.

Before terminating her engagement Miss Atwill will render two selections by request, "For All Eternity," and "Oh, You Beautiful Doll."

TICKETS SELLING WELL FOR LECTURE

With the opening of the chart for reserved seats at Piper's drug store yesterday for Dr. Levy's lecture at School Hall on January 18, the active sale of tickets has been inaugurated. As previously stated the lecture is under the auspices of the Ladies' Guild of St. Mary's Episcopal church, and the affair will be the leading platform event of the season. School Hall will seat about 500 people, and 200 seats have been reserved at $1 each, 200 and 75 cents and 100 at 50 cents. This is considered very reasonable when the high standing of Dr. Levy as a lecturer is considered.

Will Hold Monthly Meetings.

Plans for the forthcoming county Sunday school convention to be held here in June were discussed at a meeting of pastors and supenintendents of the Charleroi district at the M. E. church Thursday evening. Committees which have been appointed are looking after their share of the work. It was decided to hold a monthly conference of superintendents, pastors and district officials in an effort to improve the Sunday school work.

SOCIAL SESSION OF BEN HUR LODGE HIGHLY ENJOYED

Charleroi Court No. 41, Tribe of Ben Hur, entertained their friends royally last evening. A committee composed of Mrs. Schwer, Mrs. Rock and Mrs. Stopp arranged a progressive euchre, and a dainty lunch. The favors were awarded to Mrs. Bertram, Mrs. Charles Herron, Mrs. Wm. Evans and Messers Charles Herron, Thos. Henderson and Wm. Stropp.

During the regular business session a surprise was sprung on the Chief, Fred Powell and Past Chief Miss Anna M. Sullivan, the former being presented with a military set with sterling tops, and the latter being presented with a diamond broach. The presentation was made by Mrs. James Garrigan and the recipients responded with very neat speeches.

"CINDERELLA" FINE PICTURE PRODUCTION

The story of "Cinderella, or the Glass Slipper," that delightful juvenile classic, will be told in all its charming details in motion pictures at the Palace Theatre tonight. This is one of Selig's most sumptuous productions, and is made in three reels which contain 99 scenes of this enchanting fairy tale that is new to each succeeding generation. With gorgous costumes, correct characters and perfect scenes this production presents some startling illusions. One of the most talented actresses on the legitimate stage portrays the leading feminine role of the cast. This is Miss Mabel Taliaferro, who has been for several seasons one of the leading stars of the footlights.

Weather is Too Severe

Business Men's Association Lacks Quorm and Meeting is Proposed

The weather man was to blame for lack of a meeting of the Business Men's association Thursday evening. A regular monthly meeting was scheduled, but when the hour for calling it came there were only about half a dozen persons present The rest of the members who would have attended after glancing outdoors to see the spitting snow and to hear the cold wind whistling its refrain around the house corners, concluded to stay by the fire.

BROWNSVILLE OVENS FIRED

Nine Hundred Coke Plants Started and Business is Brisk

RETURN OF PROSPERITY

Business has been stimulated at Brownsville and the return of prosperity is evident as a result of 900 coke ovens that had been idle having been fired. The Brownsville Coke Company has placed an additional hundred ovens in service; Isabella-Connellsville Coke Company has fired 400 ovens; Champion-Connellsville Coak Company, 100 ovens, and Alicia works of the W. Henry Brown Coke Company, 300 ovens.

In addition the H. C. Frick Coke Company will complete the construction of the Sarah works, located 3 miles south of Brownsville. The Pennsylvania, Pittsburg and Lake Erie and Monongahela railroads have started improvements which will cause an expenditure of nearly $2,000,000. The new railroad bridge at Brownsville Junction necessitates the improvements, as all the tracks must be elevated five feet.

The Pennsylvania is enlarging its yard capacity on the Washington county side, while the Pittsburg & Lake Erie is acting likewise on the Fayette county side. This is being done to handle the additional tonnage which the Greene County extension of the Monongahela Railroad will produce.

How Shields Got Prison Sentence.

Commenting on Sheriff Murphy's refusal to accept prisoners in the Washington county jail for trespassing on railroad property, the Monnessen Independent says: "This is exactly what the district attorney's office of Westmoreland county prosecuted Sheriff John E. Shields for, and what Judge A D. McConnell gave him a prison sentence for."

All Charleroi Teachers Present at County or State Meeting

DIRECTORS IN SESSION

Take Up Monthly Business—Report of Treasurer Read and Bills are Paid

For probably the first time in the history of the Charleroi schools, all the teachers and heads of the schools attended either county or state institute for the season just closed. Nine of the teaching force headed by of the teaching force, headed by Prof. James G. Pentz attended the State convention at Philadelphia and the balance attended the county institute at Washington. This fact was brought out at the first semi-monthly meeting of the school board held in the President's room of the Charleroi Savings and Trust company Thursday evening.

Teachers are allowed $3 per day for their attendance at institute and this necessitated the directors ordering the amount of $15 added to each of their salaries. The extra expense incurred by institute is about $945.

A number of important matters were discussed relative to the schools. The monthly report of the school treasurer, E. J. Charles was accepted. It totaled and summarized as follows for school and building:

Balance from last report	$28,952.70
Receipts	845.45
Total	$29,798.15
Disbursements	3,320.00
Balance in treasury	$26,478.15

DELUDED WITH THE BELIEF THAT BABY IS BEING REMOVED

Early morning visitors to the railroad station this morning witnessed a pathetic case when a foreign woman with her mind unbalanced was brought here from Brownsville to be taken to the Monessen Charleroi hospital. Her husband and an American woman accompanied her. A week ago the woman gave birth to a child, it is stated, since when she has been mentally unbalanced. Her delusion is that the baby is dying and she is constantly bewailing its loss.

The Epworth League of the M. E. church will hold a "mid-winter picnic" tonight in the Sunday school room of the church. In the announcement of the affair the women have been asked to bring baskets and men their appetites and both pictures of themselves when they were children. A guessing contest will likely follow.

THINGS TO REMEMBER

In looking about for the advancement of Charleroi and its interests there are a few things to remember, and one of the most important of these is that employment for labor is essential to hold the population intact that we now have. We must also remember that Charleroi cannot grow much larger without enlarging the boundaries of our present corporate limits. Statistics compiled by members of the Charleroi Business Men's Association show that there are about 300 vacant lots in Charleroi, and that about three thousand more people at the utmost will fill the town to overflowing.

There is not much danger of congestion in the near future from the fact that there is not enough work in the town now for all the people who live here. Many are obliged to seek employment out of town, and a recent movement on the part of Monssen business men to induce people who work there but live in Charleroi and elsewhere, to move to Monessen, emphasizes an undesirable condition in Charleroi which calls for every possible effort to remedy. This is to afford employment for the people now here in order to prevent them from moving elsewhere

It is the small concerns that need the most urgent attention. A canvass of the business places over town will reveal the fact that the most of them have reduced their working forces during the past two years, and that the aggregate will amount to a considerable force—enough, possibly, to man an average sized factory. A concern employing one hundred people regularly is considered a desirable acquisition to any town, but probably more than double that number have been thrown out of regular employment in Charleroi by the stores and other business places reducing their forces during the past two years.

It can readily be seen that lack of regular employment is demoralizing to any town or community. Houses and store rooms become vacant, real estate depreciates and values everywhere decline. It is the tendency to look for big things in the way of industry, but if the small ones are fostered and taken care of the big ones will come more readily. These are some of the things to remember.

ENFORCING THE LAW.

The greatest problem that perhaps faces municipalities is the enforcement of the criminal laws. Corruption prevails in most cities and in many of the larger towns in the State because the police and local officials wink at violations and permit them to exist. A so-called liberal policy is nothing more than permission on the part of local officials for certain elements to violate the law. When this is done there is but a step from the liberal to the wide open policy. The recent scandal in Washington by the alleged suicide of the chief of police of the county seat affords a striking example of this condition.

There is a feeling in many quarters that the district attorney ought to be clothed with greater powers for the enforcement of the criminal laws of the Commonwealth. Many are of the opinion that he should have as much power and authority to prevent crime as he has to prosecute and punish violations. With a fund for that purpose and power to employ competent detectives every gambling house speakeasy and disorderly resort within the jurisdiction of each district attorney could be wiped out. When this is left to the local officials in too many instances violators of the law are permitted to continue in their course because of the risk involved in prosecutions. Then again it frequently happens that the so-called liberal element elects officials who are expected not to enforce the laws too literally.

The district attorney, clothed with the proper authority and with the aid of the State constabulary and capable detectives, could eliminate this political element from the enforcement of the criminal laws. When the local officials cannot or will not protect the community, then it is time for authority higher up to exercise its authority.

PICKED UP IN PASSING

"The moral of Russell Conwell's great lecture, 'Acres of Diamonds,' which used to be a feature at our county teacher's institutes when I lived in the northern part of the State, was brought to me with telling force, the other day" remarked a prominent educator of the valley. "'Acres of Diamonds' is the opportunities that lie around us everywhere, and the noted lecturer used the simle with most inspiring effect.

"The case in point, however, occurred recently at the teacher's institute up in Jefferson county where I once used to be located. At the institute one of the educators secured for the occasion from a western university related how he as a boy was born and bred on a farm in Eldred township, Jefferson county. Resources were limited and advantages were few, and the father finally sold the farm for a pittance and the family moved to the west to get rich as they fondly hoped, but the fickle goddess of Fortune proved as fickle and elusive in the golden west as in the barren east.

"'But the irony of fate was realized,' said the educator, 'when a few years ago oil was struck in Eldred township, and our old barren farm proved a most productive field. Had we remained where we were the family would have become comparatively wealthy."

A reader hands in one of Elbert Hubbard's latest, which appears in the January Philistine:

Brudder Johnson, an evangelist of color, was caught hugging the soprano behind the church door. He was brought up for trial, charged with immoral conduct. The case was proved.

"You have seen dese great pictures, I s'pose, so you know dat de great Shepherd am always pictured with a lamb in his arms," said Brudder Johnson, in extenuation.

"Yes, sah, Parson, dot am so, "admitted Deacon Jones.

"Den, Brudder, hat am wrong in de shepherd of his flock having a lamb in his arms?"

This was too much for Brudder Jones, so he proposed that the people have a call meeting that afternoon. After the point was discussed at the afternoon meeting, the following resolution was adopted:

"Resolved, Dat for de future peace of dis yere congregation, dat de next time Brudder Johnson feels called upon to take a lamb of de fold in his arms, dat he pick out a ram lamb."

UNIONTOWN BEATS CHARLEROI FIVE

Fayette Countians Win in Second Half After Score Was Tied

Uniontown took revenge for its defeat of a week ago Thursday night when it turned Charleroi over its knee and spanked it. At home the Uniontowners hadn't very much trouble demonstrating a few things in the way of basketball to the discomfiture of the Adams' tribe, so that the score was 36 to 25

The first half of the trouble was quite a distinguished half and ended with the score even 14 to 14. Father Sears and his tribe grew stronger in the second half. Bill Powell pulled off four field goals himself in this period while the rest were geting their share. Adams appeared to be the star for Charleroi. In the first half he made a perfect record of 10 fouls out of 10 attempts. The lineup:

JOHNSTOWN LEADERS TO PLAY CHARLEROI HERE ON SATURDAY

A good game is promised on the local floor Saturday night when Fogarty and his Johnstown team appears. The last time Johnstown was here they drew a big crowd and celebrated the occasion by lamming Charleroi properly. On the same floor last week Charleroi took Uniontown over for the first time. As yet the Cherub aggregation has not won a game from the Jawns. With the rest of today they will be in good shape for the battle, and it is obvious that a good game will result.

Some changes in the order of standing may result from the battle between Connellsville and Southside and those of tomorrow night. If Connellsville wins tonight, which we hope it won't Charleroi will drop behind temporarily. Uniontown is only half a game behind Johnstown and pulling for the lead like all possessed. Playing at Southside Saturday night it will make an effort to bring about some shifts.

AMONG THE PASSERS

Charleroi is just three points ahead of Connellsville, having won one more game, as well as lost one more game than the Cokers.

Dolin was put on center to begin with but was later substituted by Allie Brown and Pfeiffer was put in the game.

Charleroi amassed just as many points as Uniontown in the first half and Adams got the most of them in fouls.

Swenson the "Big Swede," of the Uniontown team manipulated the market for five field goals.

Somebody said the game was loose So it was, points considered.

MISERABLE DYSPEPTICS

All the world looks gloomy to the man with the upset stomach. He sees the world through smoked glasses and never tries to rub off the smoke.

Cheer up, Mr. Dyspeptic, there's bright days ahead of you. Go to Piper Brothers this very day and say I want a box of MI-O-NA tablets. Take them as directed and if the misery doesn't leave your stomach and bring a sunny smile to your gloomy countenance, go and get your 50 cents back.

MI-O-NA stomach tablets will promptly end the distress of indigestion, will stop nervousness, dizziness biliusness, sick headache and sleeplessness. Fifty cents buys a large box at Piper Brothers and druggists everywhere.

She ambled up stairs and ambled into the room which the hesitating American was stripping of valuables. Without ado she commanded him to shell out. He shelled, then she told him to get out, which he also did. Mrs. Supowit ambled back down stairs to finish up her cleaning and wait for her husband in the proper kind of suffragette mood. The last seen of the uncomfortable American he uncertainly made his way around one of Monessen's street corners. As he did so tears fell as he cried in sorrow: "What an awful night for a sailor to be out on the sea."

FOR YOUR HAIR

Here Are Facts We Want You To Prove at Our Risk.

When the roots of the hair are entirely dead and the pores of the scalp are glazed over, we do not believe that anything can restore hair growth.

But, when the hair roots retain any life, we believe there is nothing that will so surely promote hair growth as will Rexall "93" Hair Tonic. To prove that statement. we promise to promptly return all the money you pay us for Rexall "93" Hair Tonic should it not please you.

Rexall "93" Hair Tonic destroys the germs which are usually responsible for baldness. It penetrates to the roots of the hair stimulating and, by promoting circulation nourishing them.

Rexall "93" Hair Tonic helps to relieve scalp irritation, to remove dandruff, to prevent the hair from falling out, and to promote an increased growth of hair. It comes in two sizes, prices 50 cents and $1. Remember, you can obtain it only at our store—The Rexall Store. Cassidy's Drug Store, 623 Fallowfield Avenue, Charleroi.

MONESSEN HAS NO TERRORS FOR HER

Woman Proves She is Fully Qualified to Live in Town Across the River

EJECTS MAN FROM HOME

To live in Monessen is an undisputed indications of rare bravery. If the residents were not brave they wouldn't be residents—and nobody would blame them. To be really brave, not bold or audacious—although Monessen has some of that class too—doesen't usually require any self affirmation but someumes it is necessary to impress people with the fact. Then people move to Monessen.

Without leading up to the events that makes people know it is necessary to be brave to live in Monessen, or without citing proof of the statement which is commonly known to be a fact, this narrauve will tend to produce the indication of bravery. Brave men are not in the majority in Monessen; rather one should say the brave women are in the majority.

The other day Mrs. Supowit whose husband runs some kind of a store in Monessen was engaged doing yoeman work behind the counters when a neat appearing and well dressed American with locomotion in any certain direction seriously hampered by too much clog feet, managed to catch the stairs of the Supowit house as they came around Mrs Supowit wasn't thinging about being brave or anything like that but was working away like a beaver cleaning things up in the store, in the absence of her husband. But after the American had successfully scaled the stairs and landed on deck on the second floor, hearing queer noises Mrs. Supowit demonstrated that she lived in Monessen.

Coldest Weather of Winter Follows in Wake of Snow Storm--Temperature Drops to About Zero

People living along the Monongahela valley got their first speaking acquaintance with really cold weather this winter last night and this morning. Without any previous press announcements the cold wave [illegible] a cutting northwesterly cold north wind. Early last evening snow began to fall. Wind whistled an airy refrain around the corners and the mercury in thermometers went down with a bump

When people woke up this morning it was with a sense that this was the coldest of the winter season. Thermometers showed the temperature at various places of the town ranging from two above zero to nearly 10 above, but some people who were forced to make their way down street against the face of the [illegible] that it was at least 10 degrees below.

The cold spell which originated in Assiniboia and Dodge City, Kan., will not break after a day but will continue for two or three days with the temperature not rising much above that is now is

TALENTED SINGER WILL LEAVE HERE

Helen Atwill Called Home by the Severe Illness of Near Relative

Patrons of the Palace Theatre will learn with regret that Miss Helen Atwill, the talented mezzo-soprono who has been filling an engagement at this popular house during the past four months, will terminate her contract with the Saturday night performance. Miss Atwill is called to her home in Toledo, Ohio, by reason of family sickness. During her engagement here she has made a decided impression on the music loving public, and her performances have been a leading attraction at the Palace. She possesses a mezzo-soprano voice of rare quality, which has the charm of bringing out expression as well as tone, and the clearness of her enunciation was particularly appreciated by her audiences. While she rendered classical selections with equal facility, her most poplar work was the sweet and simple ballads and songs that appealed to the masses Her Charleroi engagement will be remembered with pleasure by the thousands who have listened to her voice during the past four months

Before terminating her engagement Miss Atwill will render two selections by request. "For All Eternity," and "Oh, You Beautiful Doll"

TICKETS SELLING WELL FOR LECTURE

With the opening of the chart for reserved seats at Piper's drug store yesterday for Dr. Levy's lecture at School Hall on January 18, the active sale of tickets has been inaugurated. As previously stated the lecture is under the auspices of the Ladies' Guild of St. Mary's Episcopal church, and the affair will be the leading platform event of the season. School Hall will seat about 500 people, and 200 seats have been reserved at $1 each, 200 and 75 cents and 100 at 50 cents. This is considered very reasonable when the high standing of Dr. Levy as a lecturer is considered.

Business Men's Association Lacks Quorm and Meeting is Proposed

The weather man was to blame for lack of a meeting of the Business Men's association Thursday evening. A regular monthly meeting was scheduled, but when the hour for calling it came there were only about half a dozen persons present The rest of the members who would have attended after glancing outdoors to see the spitting snow and to hear the cold wind whistling its refrain around the house corners, concluded to stay by the fire.

BROWNSVILLE OVENS FIRED

Nine Hundred Coke Plants Started and Business is Brisk

RETURN OF PROSPERITY

Business has been stimulated at Brownsville and the return of prosperity is evident as a result of 900 coke ovens that had been idle having been fired. The Brownsville Coke Company has placed an additional hundred ovens in service; Isabella-Connellsville Coke Company has fired 400 ovens, Champion-Connellsville Coak Company, 100 ovens, and Alicia works of the W Henry Brown Coke Company, 300 ovens

In addition the H. C. Frick Coke Company will complete the construction of the Sarah works, located 3 miles south of Brownsville. The Pennsylvania, Pittsburg and Lake Erie and Monongahela railroads have started improvements which will cause an expenditure of nearly $2,000,000. The new railroad bridge at Brownsville Junction necessitates the improvements, as all the tracks must be elevated five feet.

The Pennsylvania is enlarging its yard capacity on the Washington county side, while the Pittsburg & Lake Erie is acting likewise on the Fayette county side. This is being done to handle the additional tonnage which the Greene County extension of the Monongahela Railroad will produce.

How Shields Got Prison Sentence.

Commenting on Sheriff Murphy's refusal to accept prisoners in the Washington county jail for trespassing on railroad property, the Monnessen Independent says: "This is exactly what the district attorney's office of Westmoreland county prosecuted Sheriff John E. Shields for, and what Judge A D. McConnell gave him a prison sentence for."

DIRECTORS IN SESSION

Take Up Monthly Business—Report of Treasurer Read and Bills are Paid

For probably the first time in the history of the Charleroi schools, all the teachers and heads of the school attended either county or state institute for the season just closed. Nine of the teaching force headed by of the teaching force, headed by Prof James G. Pentz attended the State convention at Philadelphia and the balance attended the county institute at Washington. This fact was brought out at the first semi-monthly meeting of the school board held in the President's room of the Charleroi Savings and Trust company Thursday evening.

Teachers are allowed $3 per day for their attendance at institute and this necessitated the directors ordering the amount of $15 added to each of their salaries. The extra expense incurred by institute is about $945

A number of important matters were discussed relative to the schools. The monthly report of the school treasurer, E. J Charles was accepted It totaled and summarized as follows for school and building:

Balance from last report	$28,952.[illegible]
Receipts	845.[illegible]
Total	$29,798.[illegible]
Disbursements	3.320.[illegible]

DELUDED WITH THE BELIEF THAT BABY IS BEING REMOVED

Early morning visitors to the railroad station this morning witnessed a pathetic case when a foreign woman with her mind unbalanced was brought here from Brownsville to be taken to the Monessen Charleroi hospital. Her husband and an American woman accompanied her A week ago the woman gave birth to a child, it is stated, since when she has been mentally unbalanced. Her delusion is that the baby is dying and she is constantly bewailing its loss.

THINGS TO REMEMBER

In looking about for the advancement of Charleroi and its interests there are a few things to remember, and one of the most important of these is that employment for labor is essential to hold the population intact that we now have. We must also remember that Charleroi cannot grow much larger without enlarging the boundaries of our present corporate limits. Statistics compiled by members of the Charleroi Business Men's Association show that there are about 300 vacant lots in Charleroi, and that about three thousand more people at the utmost would fill the town to overflowing

There is not much danger of congestion in the near future from the fact that there is not enough work in the town now for all the people who live here. Many are obliged to seek employment out of town, and a recent movement on the part of Monessen business men to induce people who work there but live in Charleroi and elsewhere, to move to Monessen, emphasizes an undesirable condition in Charleroi which calls for every possible effort to remedy. This is to afford employment for the people now here in order to prevent them from moving elsewhere

It is the small concerns that need the most urgent attention A canvass of the business places over town will reveal the fact that the most of them have reduced their working forces during the past two years, and that the aggregate will amount to a considerable force—enough, possibly, to man an average sized factory. A concern employing one hundred people regularly is considered a desirable acquisition to any town, but probably more than double that number have been thrown out of regular employment in Charleroi by the stores and other business places reducing their forces during the past two years.

It can readily be seen that lack of regular employment is demoralizing to any town or community. Houses and store rooms become vacant, real estate depreciates and values everywhere decline. It is the tendency to look for big things in the way of industry, but if the small ones are fostered and taken care of the big ones will come more readily. These are some of the things to remember.

ENFORCING THE LAW.

The greatest problem that perhaps faces municipalities is the enforcement of the criminal laws Corruption prevails in most cities and in many of the larger towns in the State because the police and local officials wink at violations and permit them to exist A so-called liberal policy is nothing more than permission on the part of local officials for certain elements to violate the law. When this is done there is but a step from the liberal to the wide open policy The recent scandal in Washington by the alleged suicide of the chief of police of the county seat affords a striking example of this condition.

There is a feeling in many quarters that the district attorney ought to be clothed with greater powers for the enforcement of the criminal laws of the Commonwealth. Many are of the opinion that he should have as much power and authority to prevent crime as he has to prosecute and punish violations With a fund for that purpose and power to employ competent detectives every gambling house speakeasy and disorderly resort within the jurisdiction of each district attorney could be wiped out When this is left to the local officials in too many instances violators of the law are permitted to continue in their course because of the risk involved in prosecutions Then again it frequently happens that the so-called liberal element elects officials who are expected not to enforce the laws too literally

The district attorney, clothed with the proper authority and with the aid of the State constabulary and capable detectives, could eliminate this political element from the enforcement of the criminal laws. When the local officials cannot or will not protect the community, then it is time for authority higher up to exercise its authority

"The moral of Russell Conwell's great lecture, 'Acres of Diamonds,' which I had to deliver a hundred times at our county teacher's institutes when I lived in the northern part of the State, was brought to me with telling force, the other day" remarked a prominent educator of the valley. "'Acres of Diamonds' is the opportunities that lie around us everywhere, and the noted lecturer used the simile with most inspiring effect

"The case in point, however, occurred recently at the teacher's institute up in Jefferson county where I once used to be located At the institute one of the educators secured for the occasion from a western university related how he as a boy was born and bred on a farm in Eldred township, Jefferson county Resources were limited and advantages were few, and the father finally sold the farm for a pittance and the family moved to the west to get rich as they fondly hoped, but the fickle goddess of Fortune proved as fickle and elusive in the golden west as in the barren east.

"'But the irony of fate was realized,' said the educator, 'when a few years ago oil was struck in Eldred township, and our old barren farm proved a most productive field Had we remained where we were the family would have become comparatively wealthy."

A reader hands in one of Elbert Hubbard's latest, which appears in the January Philistine:

Brudder Johnson, an evangelist of color, was caught hugging the soprano behind the church door He was brought up for trial, charged with immoral conduct. The case was proved

"You have seen dese great pictures, I s'pose, so you know dat de great Shepherd am always pictured with a lamb in his arms," said Brudder Johnson, in extenuation

"Yes sah. Parson dot am so, 'admitted Deacon Jones

"Den, Brudder, hat am wrong in de shepherd of his flock having a lamb in his arms?'"

This was too much for Brudder Jones so he proposed that the people have a call meeting that afternoon After the point was discussed at the afternoon meeting, the following resolution was adopted.

"Resolved, Dat for de future peace of dis yere congregation, dat de next time Brudder Johnson feels called upon to take a lamb of de fold in his arms, dat he pick out a ram lamb"

UNIONTOWN BEATS CHARLEROI FIVE

Fayette Countians Win in Second Half After Score Was Tied

Uniontown took revenge for its defeat of a week ago Thursday night when it turned Charleroi over its knee and spanked it. At home the Uniontowners hadn't very much trouble demonstrating a few things in the way of basketball to the discomfiture of the Adams' tribe, so that the score was 36 to 25

The first half of the trouble was quite a distinguished half and ended with the score even 14 to 14. Father Sears and his tribe grew stronger in the second half. Bill Powell pulled off four field goals himself in this period while the rest were geting their share Adams appeared to be the star for Charleroi. In the first half he made a perfect record of 10 fouls out of 10 attempts. The lineup:

Uniontown 36		Charleroi 25
Boggio	F	Adams
Swenson	F	J. Brown
Powell	C	Lohn
Sears	G	A. Brown
Morris	G	Herron

Field goals—Boggio, Swenson 5, Sears 3, Morris 2 Adams 3, J. Brown Dohn, A Brown. Foul goals—Sears 6 out of 6, Adams, 13 out of 17 Referee—Meisel.

JOHNSTOWN LEADERS TO PLAY CHARLEROI HERE ON SATURDAY

A good game is promised on the local floor Saturday night when Fogarty and his Johnstown team appears The last time Johnstown was here they drew a big crowd and celebrated the occasion by lamming Charleroi properly On the same floor last week Charleroi took Uniontown over for the first time As yet the Cherub aggregation has not won a game from the Jawns With the rest of today they will be in good shape for the battle, and it is obvious that a good game will result

Some changes in the order of standing may result from the battle between Connellsville and Southside and those of tomorrow night. If Connellsville wins tonight, which we hope it won't Charleroi will drop behind temporarily Uniontown is only half a game behind Johnstown and pulling for the lead like all possessed Playing at Southside Saturday night it will make an effort to bring about some shifts.

AMONG THE PASSERS

Charleroi is just three points ahead of Connellsville, having won one more game, as well as lost one more game than the Cokers

Dohn was put on center to begin with but was later substituted by Allie Brown and Pfeiffer was put in the game

Charleroi amassed just as many points as Uniontown in the first half and Adams got the most of them in fouls.

Swenson the "Big Swede," of the Uniontown team manipulated the market for five field goals.

Somebody said the game was loose So it was, points considered.

Albert Wilson after spending the holidays at home has returned to State College where he is a student.

Rev Chalmers E. Frontz left on Thursday afternoon for his new home in Tiffin, Ohio, where his wife and daughter will join him later.

She ambled up stairs and ambled into the room which the hesitating American was stripping of valuables. Without ado she commanded him to shell out. He shelled, then she told him to get out, which he also did Mrs Supowit ambled back down stairs to finish up her cleaning and wait for her husband in the proper kind of suffragette mood. The last seen of the uncomfortable American he uncertainly made his way around one of Monessen's street corners As he did so tears fell as he cried in sorrow "What an awful night for a sailor to be out on the sea"

FOR YOUR HAIR

Here Are Facts We Want You To Prove at Our Risk.

Well nourished soldiers fight best, and well nourished people always do the best work. Keep your stomach in good order with Vinol, our delicious cod liver and iron remedy without oil, and you will be strong.
